

WARNING
GM Oil in Nottingham Restaurants

This GM oil is on sale - including wholesale to caterers - in Nottingham.

The law requires that consumers should be made aware - before purchasing - that the food they are eating contains genetically modified ingredients, but many caterers may be ignorant of the law, or not carrying out proper checks. Any consumers who are at all concerned regarding the inclusion of GM food should specifically ask the caterers when ordering their food. The law requires the owner to provide an honest answer. The maximum penalty is a fine of £20,000. More at <http://tinyurl.com/veggies-vs-gm>
